

Fixed income product specialists (Europe)

Kepler Capital Markets is a European investment bank with a specialisation in small and mid cap companies. Our business model has evolved from an equity brokerage house into a dynamic organisation with six complementary business lines : equity brokerage; arbitrage and structured products; inter-dealer broker; corporate finance; asset management; private banking.

We are present in Amsterdam, Frankfurt, Geneva, Madrid, Milan, Paris, Zurich and New York.

Kepler Capital Markets is currently looking for fixed income product specialists in Continental Europe.

We are looking for candidates with a minimum of 5 years experience, proven track record and an established account relationships base. We are seeking experienced individuals selling treasuries, Agencies, Corporates and FRN... The ideal candidate would currently be working in a client contact sales environment. He will be articulate, numerate and posses the character to grow and develop within this role. Some business travels may be required.

Please send your CV along with your relevant skills and the reasons why you would be suitable for this position to ke.hr@keplercm.com